This Fund is an alternative mutual fund. It may therefore invest in asset classes and/or use investment strategies that are not permitted for conventional mutual funds. The specific strategies that differentiate this Fund from other types of mutual funds may include: increased use of derivatives for hedging and non-hedging purposes; increased ability to sell securities short; and the ability to borrow cash to use for investment purposes. While these strategies may be used in accordance with the Fund’s investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

What does the Fund invest in?

The Fund seeks to achieve superior absolute and risk-adjusted returns as compared to balanced fund approaches, or a long-only equity fund, with the added benefits of protection and performance during sustained downward trends while earning a yield. This will be achieved by combining traditional assets with the Manager’s protective strategies on a near equal basis, which allows the Fund to benefit from the non-correlation of equity, fixed income and divergent alternative investments.

The Fund may use leverage through the use of cash borrowings, short sales and derivatives. If used, the fund will manage its risk in such a manner as to keep the absolute VaR under 20% of its net asset value. While these strategies may be used in accordance with the Fund’s investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

Auspice Capital Advisors Ltd. has rated the volatility of this Fund as medium.

This rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It does not tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

Low	Low to Medium	Medium	Medium to High	High
